CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE 1. This Association shall be known as the Reedy Creek Missionary Baptist Association, and shall have a President and Vice-President, who shall be elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the body, a Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, Treasurer and Auditor, who shall be elected by acclamation at each annual meeting.

ART. 2. This Association shall be composed of pastors and messengers sent from the different churches, who shall be entitled to seats in this Association.

ART. 3. Letters received by this Association from different churches shall give the total number in fellowship, those baptized, those received by letter, those dismissed by letter, those excommunicated, those deceased and the number of Sunday school scholars since the last meeting of the body; also, the amount of money raised during the year.

ART. 4. The members chosen to discharge these duties shall have no power over God's heritage, nor shall they have any ecclesiastical power over the churches of this Association.

ART. 5. Churches may be received in this Association which shall make application by letter or messengers. Upon examination, if found in gospel order, it shall be the duty of the President to extend the right hand of fellowship to the messengers, and welcome the church into this Association.

ART. 6. Any church of the same faith and order may be entitled to representation in this Association, and may not send more than two messengers from each church.

ART. 7. Every motion made and seconded shall be left to the discretion of the Association, whether it shall be debated or not.

ART. 8. The Association shall endeavor to furnish the churches with the Minutes of the Association. The best method of furnishing the Minutes shall be left to the Association.

ART. 9. We believe it necessary to have an Associational fund to pay the expenses of the Association, therefore each church is requested to pay the amount designated by the Association during its session.

ART. 10. The Minutes of the previous session may be read and corrected, if necessary. The Association shall have power to enquire why any church does not, at any time of the sitting, represent themselves in the Association.

ART. 11. The Association will not fellowship any church which may violate the rules of the Association or the principles of religion.

ART. 12. This Association do advise each church to license such brethren only as are competent to preach the gospel; also ordain such brethren only as possess full qualifications to preach the gospel of Christ.

ART. 13. The Association shall appoint a Ministerial Board, consisting of nine members, whose duty shall be to receive applications for ordination and ordain the applicants, if found worthy, and do any other work in gospel order.

ART. 14. This Constitution shall be subject to alteration by a two-thirds vote of the Association.

ART. 15. We adopt Hiscox's Directory for our guide in the Association.

RULES OF ORDER.

1st. The Association shall be opened and closed with prayer.

2nd. Not more than one person shall speak at a time; and any one wishing to speak, shall arise and address the Moderator by the term brother.

3rd. The person speaking shall not be interrupted until he is done, unless he is out of order.

4th. The person speaking shall strictly adhere to the subject under consideration, and shall in no wise reflect on the brother who had preceded him, but shall firmly and courteously state the case so as to give his views.

5th. No brother shall abruptly break off or absent himself without obtaining leave from the Association.

6th. No person shall speak more than twice on the same subject without obtaining liberty from the Association.

7th. No brother shall be at liberty to whisper during the time a brother is speaking.

8th. The Moderator shall not interrupt any member, or prohibit his speaking, until he gives his ideas on the subject, unless he violates the rules of this Association.

9th. The names of the several members shall be enrolled by the Secretary, and called over as often as the Association requires.

10th. The Moderator may give his views upon any subject before putting it to a vote, but he is not entitled to vote except in case of a tie.

11th. Any member who knowingly breaks any of these rules shall be reproved by the body as the members may think proper.

PRINTING COMMITTEE.

Elders O. B. Alston, L. Brown, E. H. Ward, Geo. W. Nicholson. Bro. A. H. Jones, Clerk.

The Committee on Printing met pursuant to adjournment, Oct. 7th, 1885, in the First Baptist Church of Enfield, N. C.

The house was called to order at the usual hour by the chairman, Elder O. B. Alston. Opened by singing hymn 446 S. M. Read the 90th Psalm. Elder G. A. Norwood offered prayer, after which sang hymn 480, C. M. Then the house was announced ready for the transaction of business.

The first business in order was the appointment of Elders who should officiate upon the seven special sermons (1886) namely:

The Introductory Sermon by Elder L. Brown; the Missionary Sermon by Elder B. K. Sykes; the Doctrinal Sermon by Elder O. B. Alston; the Educational Sermon by Elder L. C. Taylor; the Temperance Sermon by Elder E. H. Ward; the Denominational Sermon by Elder J. Mayes; the Sacramental Sermon by Elder J. Johnson.

The Secretary's Railroad fare $3.00.

On motion, it was agreed that the minutes should be printed wherever the work could be done cheapest.

MY DEAR BRETHREN:—Allow me space to speak to you through your minutes to inform you of a mistake in the financial report of the present minutes. As we can find no report showing the disbursement of the money turned over to the Ministerial Board at Mt. Olive Church, for the year 1884, therefore, we are compelled to announce the surplus fund as rendered for the year ending Aug. 18th, 1885, at Olive Grove, greater by the amount of $18.21. I hope the mistake can be easily apprehended.

Truthfully yours, ALPHEUS H. JONES,
Secretary.
